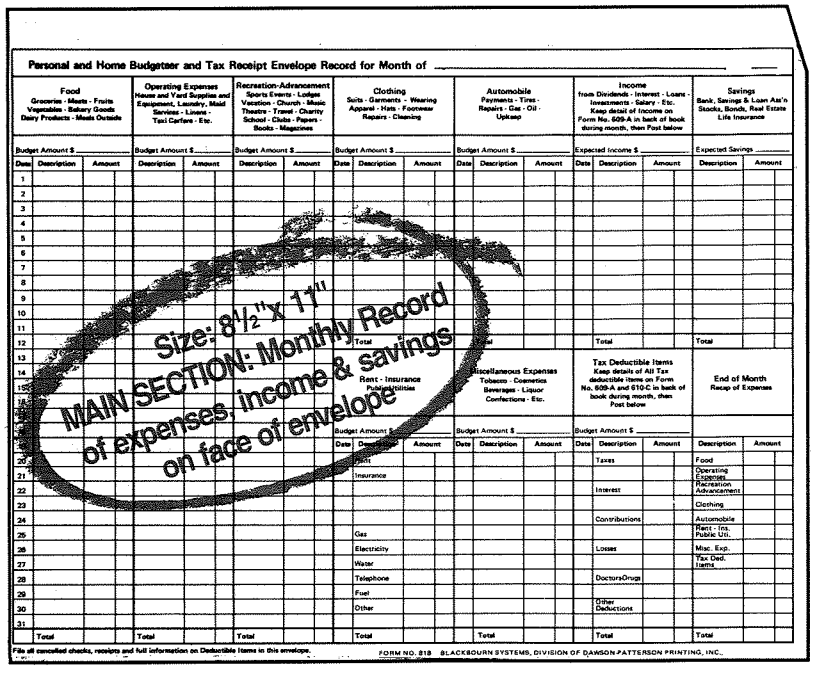
NO. 815P - HOME BUDGET AND RECEIPT BOOK

A Budget and expense book with tax receipt envelopes



SUB SECTIONS: (see page 25)

Pays for itself the first month you use it!

The information is printed right on the face of the bound-in envelopes, so as you account for your home operating expenses, you immediately file away receipts and other important papers!

Each printed envelope takes care of an entire month. Headings are the ones all home-owners need: food, operating expenses, recreation/advancement, clothing, automobile expenses, income, savings.

You enter the budgeted amount at the top of each column. Underneath you record the actual expenses as they occur. It's that simple to use Blackbourn's Home Expense Record!

In the back of the book, you'll find handy sheets for entering your yearly net income, savings and expenses, allowable income tax deductions, investment record, depreciation schedule and household inventory
